ingredients with Peruvian influences. The Belle Époque restaurant seats a maximum of 60 people and boasts a cocktail and sushi bar. Open during the winter season.

- Renaissance Bar – Davidoff Lounge: The Renaissance Bar - Davidoff Lounge is the cosiest Bar in St. Moritz offering classic and innovative cocktails at any time of day.
- Le Grand Hall: The legendary lobby of the hotel with its stunning views, extravagant décor and fantastic architecture is known affectionately as the “living room of St. Moritz”. Guests can enjoy the hotel’s glamorous atmosphere over High Tea, champagne and caviar with live piano accompaniment.
- Le Bistro: A cosy and stylish 55-seat restaurant with a simple twist on contemporary French Cuisine and continental design created by Italian designer Maurizio Argenti. Open during the winter season, it links directly to the King’s Club.
- Chesa Veglia: Chesa Veglia is one of the oldest farmhouses of St. Moritz (built in 1658). Chesa Veglia is a hideaway for the rich and famous and its restaurants are among the favourites in St. Moritz. It features three restaurants and two bars: The Pizzeria Heuboden for original Italian pizza and pasta, the Grill Chadafö for elegant dining with classic French cuisine and the Patrizier Stuben for Swiss and International specialities. The Polo Bar and Carigiet Bar, are the perfect place for a get-together, as well as for pre and after dinner drinks.
- King’s Club: The most famous nightclub in the Engadin valley with seating for over 200 guests, fully equipped with modern plasma screens. Stars and starlets gather here for the unique atmosphere, Guest DJ’s and theme nights. King’s Club knows no curfew, making it the most exciting place to be when all other lights have gone out. Open only during the winter season.
- „La Diala“(Roman for „mountain fairy“) The latest restaurant within „Palace Wellness“. The restaurant offers a light Mediterranean cuisine with a wide selection of salads and sandwiches. In summer the terrace can be used. The family friendly restaurant opens daily 9.00am to 8pm.
