Badrutt's Palace Hotel receives Travel & Leisure World's Best Award

St. Moritz, 12th July 2018. Badrutt's Palace Hotel is crowned as the seventh best hotel in Europe in this year's World's Best Awards, which awards the 100 best hotels in the world. The Grande Dame of St. Moritz achieved 59th position overall, simultaneously placing it at the pinnacle of Swiss hotels.

Travel & Leisure's World's Best Awards annually recognises the 100 best international hotels. Between November 2017 and March 2018 the top hotels were chosen and ranked by a reader pole. They were evaluated in the categories of service, location, hotel layout, restaurant offering as well as a rating of the hotel as a whole.

With 59th place Badrutt's Palace Hotel ranks among the best hotel addresses in the world. It is very encouraging that the traditional St. Moritz hotel ranked higher than all other Swiss hotels and reached seventh place compared to the rest of Europe.

"Badrutt's Palace Hotel is proud to keep pace with so much international competition and to be classed among the best 100 hotels in the world. This award bestows us with an extraordinary honour and our resolve is strengthened to continue on the path we have forged. Furthermore this award is a great motivation for all our staff who are there for our guests day in day out," enthuses General Manager Richard Leuenberger.

The top award of best hotel went to a resort in Asia, where there was a higher percentage of awards than any other region. Further information about the World's Best Awards can be found here: <https://www.travelandleisure.com/worlds-best>
